Each member may nominate any person or persons to whom the amount standing at the credit of such Member shall be paid in the event of his death while in the service of the Bank or before his claim on the Fund shall have been discharged. Such nomination shall be made in the prescribed Form. If a Member nominates more than one person, he shall, in his nomination, specify the amount or share payable to each of the nominees in such manner as to cover the whole of the amount that may stand to his credit in the Provident Fund. Where a Member has a family at the time of making a nomination, the nomination shall be in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family. Any nomination made by a Member in favour of person or persons not belonging to this family shall be invalid. If at the time of making a nomination a Member has no family, the nomination may be in favour of any person or persons, but if the Member subsequently acquires a family such nomination shall forthwith be deemed to be invalid and the Member may be allowed to make a fresh nomination in favour of one or more persons belonging to his family. A nomination made by a Member, at any time, may be modified by giving a written notice to the Trustees of his intention of doing so in the prescribed Form. If a nominee predeceases the Member, the interest of the nominee shall revert to the member, who may thereupon make a fresh nomination in respect of such interest. A nomination or its modification shall take effect to the extent that it is valid on the date on which it is received by the Trustees.

EXPLANATION :- For the purpose of this rule, "Family" means the Member's spouse, legitimate children, step children, deceased son's widow, deceased son's legitimate children, deceased son's step children and dependent parents, sister & minor brothers.

- 23 A. In the event of the death of the nominee prior to death of the Member and no other person having in the interval been nominated by the member, the amount standing at credit of the member shall be dealt with in Rule 27.
24. On the death of a Member who shall have made a Nomination in accordance with Rule 23, the full amount payable to him according to these Rules shall be paid to Member's nominee irrespective of the period for which the member may have served and such payment shall be a good discharge to the Trustees against all claims, whatsoever, in respect of the said Fund by any one whomsoever claiming through the said Member or otherwise.
25. If the nominee is a minor the member shall, at the time of nomination state the age of the nominee and shall also appoint a person of full age to whom the amount standing at the Member's credit is to be paid on behalf of the minor nominee, in the event of the member dying before the minor nominee attains the age of majority. If any person so appointed predeceases the member before the minor nominee attains his majority, the member shall forthwith appoint another person of full age to receive the amount on behalf of the minor nominee and from time to time forthwith make a fresh appointment when this is necessitated by the death of the person appointed to receive payment on behalf of the nominee.
26. The nomination made as aforesaid shall be and remain in full force and effect until the nominee's death or until his nomination or appointment has been revoked as herein mentioned.
27. On the death of a Member not survived by a nominee under Rule 23 the full amount due to the Member according to the Rules shall be paid without deduction to his executors or administrators, or at the absolute discretion of the Trustees. The amount or any part or parts thereof may be paid to the widow, child or children of his/her or their guardian or custodian or other near relative or relatives of a deceased Member or any other person or persons appearing to them to be proper parties to receive the amount without any representation to the estate of such deceased Member or any Succession Certificate being obtained and in such proportion as the Director may think fit irrespective of the period for which the member may have served and such payment shall be a good discharge of the Trustees against all claims whatsoever in respect of the said Fund by any one whomsoever claiming through the said deceased Member or otherwise.

28. Except as is expressly provided by these Rules, no Member or any person or persons claiming under or through him shall be entitled to claim any payment of money which may be standing to his credit in the books of the Fund.
29. Save as herein provided with regard to Nomination , no member shall be entitled in any way to deal with or transfer by way of security or otherwise his interest or any part thereof in the Fund and any such transaction or transfer shall be invalid, and the Trustees shall not recognise or be bound by any notice to them of any such transaction or transfer and all monies standing in the books of the Fund to the credit of the Member, so purporting to deal with or transfer his interest therein, as aforesaid shall forthwith be transferred as from the date of such transaction or transfer to the Lapsed Fund and be dealt with accordingly. Further, if any prohibitory order or attachment or process of a Civil Court be served upon the Trustees by which any monies standing to the credit of the Member shall be attached or ordered to be paid into a Civil Court ordered to be withheld from such Member and such attachment or order is not raised to be rescinded by the Court or should such member be adjudged an insolvent or files his Petition in insolvency or make any composition or arrangement with his creditors, such monies shall forthwith be transferred to the Lapsed Fund and be dealt with accordingly, provided always that the Trustees (without being under any legal obligation to do so) may in their absolute discretion if they think fit at any time or times hereafter give or apply such monies or any part thereof to or for the benefit of such Member or his wife, children or relatives.
30. A Contributor shall not be entitled to withdraw any sum from the amount standing to his credit but the Trustees may allow in their discretion a withdrawal on grounds and under circumstances and within the limits and subject to all the conditions pertaining to repayment of loan and rate of interest payable thereon specified by rules made by the Government of India or any Local Government in that behalf and for the time being in force.
31. (I) Withdrawals by employees shall not be allowed by the Trustees except on special grounds in the following circumstance or circumstances of a similar nature :-
- (a) To pay expenses incurred in connection with the illness of a Subscriber or a member of his family
 - (aa) Meeting the cost of higher education including where necessary, the travelling expenses of any child of the employee actually dependent on him in the following cases namely:

 - (d) To meet the expenditure of building or purchasing a house or site for a house PROVIDED that the employee furnishes an undertaking to the Trustees not to encumber or alienate, such house or site as the case may be for a period of ten years from the date of such Withdrawal or till he ceases to be a Member of the Fund whichever is early. However, the Trustees have the power to reduce the period of ten years in deserving cases and for genuine reasons upto five years.
 - (dd) To meet expenditure of marriage of employee's sons/or daughters.
 - (e) To pay premia on policies of insurance on the life of the Subscriber or of wife provided that the employee furnishes an undertaking to the Trustees not to foreclose, encumber or raise a loan on such policy for a period of five years from the date of such Withdrawal or till he ceases to be a Member of the fund whichever is early.
 - (f) To meet the cost of legal proceedings instituted by the employee for vindicating his position in regard to any allegations made against him in respect of any act done or purporting to be done by him in discharge of his official duty or to meet the cost of his defence when he is prosecuted by the employer in any Court of Law in respect of any official misconduct on his part. Provided that the advance under this clause shall not be admissible to an employee who institutes legal proceedings in any court

- of Law either in respect of any matter unconnected with his official duty or against the employer in respect of any condition of service or penalty imposed on him.
- (g) To meet the expenses of the damage caused to the movable or immovable property of the employee as a direct result of flood, cyclone, earthquake or other convulsions of nature.
- (ii) For the purpose of sub-rule (1) "family" means any of the following persons who reside with and / or wholly dependent on the employee, namely, the employee's wife, legitimate children and step children, parents, sisters and minor brothers.
- (iii) (A) The loan/withdrawal in connection with expenses on marriages as specified in clause (c) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 31 shall not exceed six months salary (as per clause 2 of P.F. rules) or the total of the accumulation of employees contribution including interest accrued on the same, whichever is less.
- (B) The Withdrawal for the purpose specified in Clause (d) of sub-rule (i) of Rule 31 shall be subject to the following conditions :-
- (i) The amount of withdrawal shall not exceed the amount standing to the credit of employees' own contribution including VPF or actual cost of the house and or of the site whichever is less.
- (ii) The employee should have completed Ten years of service or is due to retire within the next ten years.
- (iii) The construction of the house should be commenced within six months of the withdrawal and should be completed within one year from the date of the commencement of construction.
- (iv) In case of Non Refundable Withdrawal instead of the present practice of reducing the eligible amount by outstanding in refundable loan, total eligible amount should be sanctioned and after adjusting present loan outstanding balance should be paid to the member.
- (v) If the Withdrawal is made for the purchase of house and/or site for a house the purchase should be made within six months of the withdrawal.
- (vi) If the Withdrawal is made for the repayment of loan previously raised for the purpose of construction or purchase of a house the repayment of loan should be made within three months of withdrawal.
- (vii) a. The Withdrawal/s shall be permitted only if the house or/site is free from encumbrances. Provided that the house or site shall not be treated as encumbered if the same is mortgaged/encumbered for obtaining housing loan from any bank/financial institution.
- b. No withdrawal/s shall be permitted for purchasing a share in a joint property or building or house or land whose ownership is undivided, except where a site is owned jointly with the spouse and the name of employee being the first.
- viii) If the amount withdrawn exceeds the actual cost of the purchase or construction of the house and or site or if the amount is not utilized for the purpose for which it is withdrawn, the excess of the whole amount as the case may be shall be refunded to the Trustees forthwith in one lump sum together with interest from the month of such withdrawal at the rate prescribed in sub-rule (vi) of Rule 31. The amount refunded shall be credited to the employee's account in Provident Fund.
- ix) If the Withdrawal is made for Son's/Daughter's marriage, then the wedding invitation card as well as the Photostat copy of the marriage certificate duly attested should be submitted to the Trustees, as a proof of having solemnized the marriage for which the withdrawal is availed.
- (C) No loans/withdrawals except those mentioned in Rule 31 (iii) A and B shall exceed the salary of the employee for six months.
- (iv) A second Withdrawal shall not be permitted until the sum first withdrawn has been fully repaid. Where an Employee ceases to be in the service of the Bank, the Trustees, at their

- discretion may adjust the loan outstanding against the balance of the Member's Provident Fund contribution standing to the credit of his account.
- (v) When a Withdrawal is allowed for a purpose specified in clause (d) or (dd) or clause (e) of sub-rule(i) of Rule No.31, the amount withdrawn need not be repaid. A second withdrawal may be permitted for the purpose specified in clause (d) or (dd) or clause (e) of Sub-rule(i) of Rule No.31, the amount withdrawn need not be repaid.
31. Loan sanctioned and withdrawn shall be repaid is not more than 48 equal monthly instalments and shall bear interest in accordance with sub-rule (vi) and no further withdrawal shall be permitted until repayment has been effected in full. Notwithstanding anything contained herein in case of premature adjustment of loan the employee shall not be entitled to avail fresh loan unless a period of six months has elapsed from the date of availment of previous loan. However in case of adjustment of loan out of NRW amount, the member can apply fresh loan as and when required without the bar of six months provided he is eligible for such loan otherwise.
- vi) In respect of withdrawals which are repaid in not more than twelve monthly instalments, an additional instalment of four percent of the amount withdrawn shall be paid on account of interest and in respect of withdrawals which are repaid in more than 12 monthly instalments, two such instalments of four percent of the amount withdrawn shall be paid on account of interest provided, however, that at the discretion of the Trustees of the Fund, interest may be recovered on the amount withdrawn or the balance thereof outstanding from time to time at one percent, above the rate which is payable for the time being on the balance in the Fund at the credit of the Member.
- vii) The Employer shall deduct such instalment from the employee's salary and pay them to the Trustees. The deduction shall commence from the second monthly payment made after the Withdrawal or in the case of an Employee on leave without pay from the second monthly payment made after his return to duty.
- viii) In the case of default of repayment of instalments under sub-rules(v) and (vi), the Commissioner of Income-Tax may at his discretion order that the amount of the withdrawal or the amount outstanding shall be added to the total income of the Employee for the year in which the default occurs and the Income-Tax Officer shall assess the Employee accordingly.
- ix) Notwithstanding anything contained in Sub-Rules (i) to (viii) of Rule No.31, it shall be open to the Trustees to permit at any time within twelve months before date of retirement on superannuation of the Employee, the withdrawal of upto ninety percent of the amount standing to the credit of the Employee.
32. No Trustee shall be responsible or chargeable, save and except for monies actually received by him, notwithstanding his having signed any receipt for the sake of conformity or otherwise nor shall he be responsible or chargeable for acts, defaults or neglects of the Bank with whom the monies of the Fund are deposited not for any loss unless the same happens through his own willful act or omission.
33. The Board of Directors shall have power to close the Fund at any time if they shall consider that course advisable or necessary in which event the Fund shall be divided among the members by payment to each member of such sum as may be payable to him according to Rule 34.
34. Any appreciation or depreciation in any investments of the Fund shall be for the benefit of and at the risk of the Member and at the closing of the Fund the cash in hand and the realization from the investment shall be divided rateably among the members in proportion to the respective amount standing to their credit.
35. Every Trustee shall be at liberty to retire by notice in writing in that behalf addressed to the Board of Directors.
